A Glimpse Into Our Lives

Thank you

We want to say thank you for making the decision to choose adoption. We recognize this decision is very difficult. We are grateful for you taking the time to review our profile. Thank you for considering not only us, but the entire village ready to love and support your child.

Adoption has always been something we wanted for our family. We have struggled with infertility since 2022, but we know in our hearts this adoption is only the beginning for our family.

Our Promise To You and Our Child

- We will ALWAYS put our children first.
- No matter what, we will ALWAYS love them unconditionally.
- Your child will know who they are and where they come from.
- They will know your name, and when you're ready, your story.
- We will teach them what their purpose is in this world.
- We will cherish their curiosity, energy, and creativity.
- We will give them memories and adventures.
- We will teach them patience, understanding, and respect.

How We Met

We met through mutual friends of ours. Alexa was about to start her first year of college. Danny had already been working as an apprentice in the trades for over a year.

We truly met by chance. We both went to different high schools and did not have mutual friends from school. We have often said if certain things in our lives had not happened, we would not have had the friends we did leading up to when we met. We had unknowingly been in the same spot several times throughout our lives including school dances, EAA, and Country USA. Our friends who introduced us will forever remember being a part of our lives and how they brought together two people who were meant to be. We will forever be grateful for the friendships that connected us.

Hobbies

Playing volleyball

Going for walks

Working in our garden

Spending time outside with our chickens

Hunting

Boating/tubing

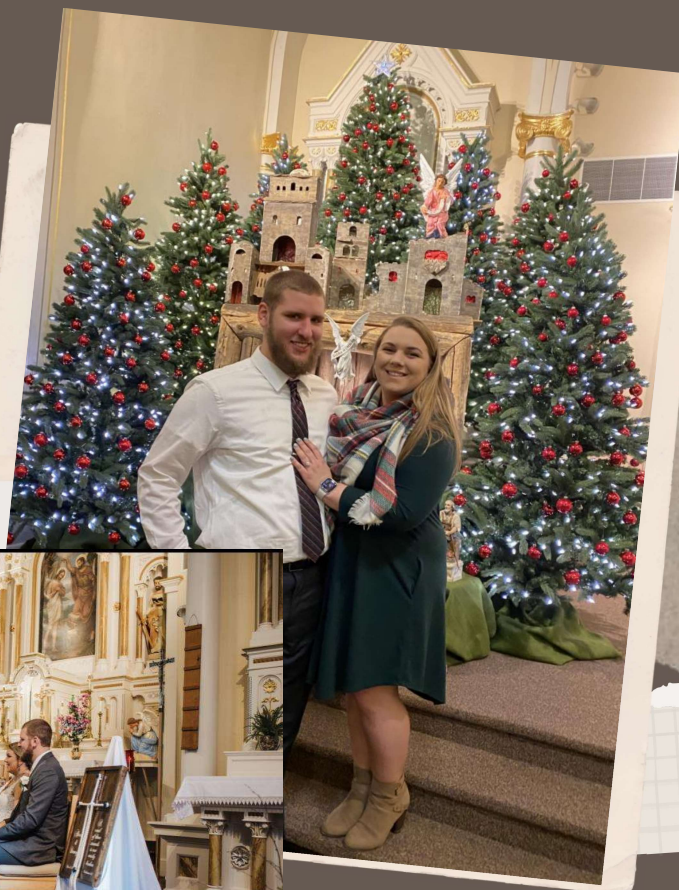

Relaxing around bonfires

Playing card games

Going to or watching Packer games

Traveling

We go to church every Sunday together. Faith is an important aspect of our lives. We will raise our children in the church and teach them of God's love for them.

Family

Adoption is a starting point for us, we do want to continue to grow our family. Our hope is for us to one day have a family with four kids in it.

Our families are very important to us. We are fortunate to have both of our immediate family within 30 minutes of our home. We are very close knit with both sides of our families. We often get together with Danny's family Sunday after church. Several times a month we end up at Alexa's sister's house for a Sunday Dinner. Our families have been a huge support in our journey to adopt and cannot wait to meet our future children.

Our Dogs

Reggie is our Black and Tan Coonhound. We adopted him in 2017. He is 9 years old and the biggest snuggler. Once he lays down he is hard to move.

Koda is our Vizsla mix. We adopted him in 2024. He was estimated to be about 4 years old, but our vet suspects he is younger. He is very energetic, but will slow down and cuddle any chance he is given.

Both dogs have been great when interacting with our nieces and nephews. We are excited to see them with a child in the home full time.

About Danny

Danny was raised on the family farm just outside of the Fox Cities. He is one of nine children in his family. He has 10 nieces and nephews, and his family is continuing to grow.

His mom, Kathy, is planning to be our primary caregiver once adoption is finalized. This will also allow our children to be around Danny's brothers, nephews, and extended family daily.

Danny works construction for a local sprinkler fitting contractor. He loves the challenges of his job as it often makes him feel like he is solving a large puzzle each day. Danny is off of work Friday afternoon's and is looking forward to utilizing the time for family.

About Alexa

Alexa is one of three girls. She also has a "bonus" brother, Adam. Alexa grew up in the Fox Valley and her parents still live in her childhood home. Alexa has one niece and nephew so far, but both of her sisters plan to grow their families more in the future.

Her younger sister, Maisie, is Alexa's closet relative; living a mile from Danny's family farm. Maisie will also be providing care for our children as needed when we are at work.

Alexa works for the State of Wisconsin. She has a job that allows her to work from home two days a week. She plans to have the kids in the home on these days. She is also going to adjust her schedule to be home earlier when baby arrives.

Our holiday traditions

New Years: We go to church together and typically get together with Danny's family for games and lunch. Danny's mother will take all of the grandkids for a large sleep over on New Years Eve, the kids look forward to this each year.

Easter: We spend the weekend at Alexa's grandparent's house. We color eggs, do an easter egg hunt, and play games before coming home Sunday morning. Then we go to church with Danny's family, then head to the family farm for brunch and card games.

Thanksgiving: We spend with both our families. We typically do lunch with Danny's family at the farm, before going to Alexa's sister's for dinner. We often end meals with a movie and card games.

Christmas: We go to church with Danny's family for the Christmas Eve service. We then go to the farm to see what gifts Santa brought while we were at church. Christmas Day we go to Alexa's parents for breakfast and opening gifts.

Summer Traditions

Memorial Day and Labor Day: Both these holidays are spent with Alexa's family at her Grandparent's lake house. We relax outside, go swimming, go boating, light bon fires, listen to music in the yard, take walks, and play games together. While we may not partake in fishing adventures, we cheer on those who do.

Fourth of July: We have recently started a new tradition where we host this celebration at our house. We set up a tent the night before to attend our small town parade with both of our families. We then cook brats and burgers at our house, hang out with our families, play yard games, talk, listen to music, and light off fireworks. On the weekend, we will go to Alexa's grandparents lake house and enjoy time on the water and fireworks.

Our Future Traditions

Easter: Decorate our house as a family and color eggs together. We will do an egg hunt and Easter baskets at home.

Thanksgiving: Make placemats to use for the dinner.

Christmas: We will travel to pick out a real tree together, partake in St. Nick traditions, decorate the house and tree, make cookies, and make a new ornament each year to represent our children getting older to add to the tree.

Fall Activities: We will go to a local corn maze that we have been visiting for several years now. We will try to go apple picking or to a pumpkin patch yearly, and we will carve/paint pumpkins together.

Our Home

We live in the country
on two acres of land.
We have fantastic
neighbors who are very excited to have kids
in the
"neighborhood."

We have 29 chickens with plans to add to the flock
in the coming years.

We have awoken to beautiful sunrises in the morning, and witnessed exquisite sunsets in the evenings. We also have been fortunate to view the northern lights several times this past year.
